then remarried a King. Believe I have where she is buried but nothing on her DEEN husband. Any clues as to where the SUMRALL girls that married the SAXON guys are buried? Sumrall book no help on this part of clan- do you know anyone else that might be working this line? What about DEARMOND/WALKER connection that were in Wayne County- Would like to know if they are SAXON related. These are just a few of my questions regarding these lines. Any clues or hints or help greatly appreciated. Thanks, Jackie PCSS32A

Patricia. For the last 15 years I have been trying to find the parents of an Ann Hay(s) who married Jesse Caton in 1806 in Philadelphia. He was born 1785 in the MS Territory. His seaman's papers said New Orleans, MS Territory. I have always just taken it for granted that Ann Hay(s) was from PA. He was married in Philadelphia in 1806. They both lived there the rest of their lives & raised a large family. Do you by any chance have a record of the Ann Hay(s) I am seeking? Any help will be greatly appreciated.
